

Ohio Revised Code

Section 2301.271 Minimum standards for the training of adult probation officers.

Effective: September 28, 2012

Legislation: Senate Bill 337, House Bill 487 - 129th General Assembly

(A) The adult parole authority of the department of rehabilitation and correction shall develop minimum standards for the training of adult probation officers as provided by section 2301.27 of the Revised Code. The adult parole authority shall consult and collaborate with the supreme court in developing the standards. The department of youth services shall develop minimum standards for the training of probation officers who supervise juvenile offenders.

(B) Within six months after September 30, 2011, the department of rehabilitation and correction and, within six months after the effective date of this amendment, the department of youth services shall make available a copy of the minimum standards developed by the department, as applicable, to the following entities:

- (1) Every municipal court, county court, and court of common pleas;
 - (2) Every probation department.
